B.S. SPECIALIZATION IN ECONOMIC POLICY ANALYSIS (622)

16 FULL COURSES REQUIRED

Before this major can be declared, the student must have:

A minimum overall GPA of 2.0

Grades of C or better in both ECON 160 and 162

Grades of B- or better in one of the required statistics courses (#5 below) and calculus courses (#6 below).

A minimum grade of C or better is required for a course to fulfill major requ8for a 8 (q)-7 (u8f)G.1 (r)1.12 (C)9.7 (o) T0 Tc 0 Tw 11.348 0 Td( )Tj

6

At least 3 of which are 400-489

- No more than 1 course numbered in the 100s

At least 3 of the 5 electives must be chosen from courses below (also see note):

Information Economics

ECON 413 - Microeconomics of Development	ECON 444 - Economics of Households
ECON 414 - Economic Development – East Asia	ECON 448 – Economics of Education
ECON 415 - Gender & Economic Development	ECON 450 - Monetary Economics
ECON 416 – Economic Analysis with Python

ECON 436 - International Trade	ECON 466 – Introduction to Econometrics
ECON 437 - International Monetary Economics	ECON 483C/581D Policy Evaluation Applied Microeconomics
ECON 440 - Industrial Organization	ECON 483K/556 Advanced Data Analysis
ECON 443 - Labor Economics	ECON 483M/542 Advanced Financial Economics

Note course taken		Number
9	ECON
10	ECON
11	ECON	4
12	ECON	4
13	ECON	4

NOTE: These courses listed may not be offered each semester or even each academic year. Course offerings are based on available teaching resources. Special topics courses may sometimes be added to this list for a semester – these will be announced to the ECONMAJ listserv if and when they are added.

COMPUTING SKILLS

14	CS 105, Introduction to Computing (CS 110 and CS 140, HARP 150 also accepted)

TWO COURSES chosen from either PLSC (numbered above 300) or ENVI (any level). Any suitable course other than PLSC or ENVI must be approved by the Economics Undergraduate Director. (Please refer to the Bulletin for course titles, descriptions and prerequisites.)

15	PLSC/ENVI	Note Level Taken
16	PLSC/ENVI	Note Level Taken	