

Moulay-Ali Bouânani, Ph.D.
Curriculum Vitae

82 Hill Avenue
Johnson City, New York 13790
(607) 722-7373 (home)
(757) 537-7386 (Portable)
bouanani@binghamton.edu
Bouanani.idrissi@gmail.com

Position

Lecturer,

Graduate Teaching Assistant Award, Department of English, The University of Toledo, Fall 1992 - Summer 1996.

Fulbright Visiting Scholar Grant, The Moroccan-American Committee for Educational and Cultural Exchange. Attended Seminar on American Studies at Temple University, Philadelphia, PA, Summer 1990.

British Council Technical Assistance Scholarship, Fall 1983

ArticlesIn Morocco*

Upcoming issue of Comparative Studies of South Asia, Africa and the Middle East. A Journal Published by Duke University Press.

-so-

Working Papers in Cultural &

Literary Studies. Université Sidi Mohammed Ben Abdallah, Fez-Saiss, Morocco

issue on Travel Writing on Morocco of Moroccan Cultural Studies Journal. (By invitation.)

-Unis et les états barbaresques: historiographies des relations maroco-

"Filming the Kasbah: (Hollywood's Myths of North Africa) Manufacturing Myths of North Africa in Hollywood films." Department of Modern Languages, Grand Valley State University, Grand Rapids, MI. (By invitation). Feb. 11, 2008.

"Medieval Arabic-Islamic World." MDVL 101 class, Binghamton University, February 6, 2007. Specialist Speaker. (By invitation)

"Western Travelers in the Maghreb" (in Arabic for students of Arabic and faculty), ARANAS Summer Program Talk Series, Al Akhawayn University, Ifrane, Morocco (Guest Lecturer). July 15, 2008

Department of Romance Languages and Literatures 15th Annual Conference on Literature, Film and War, March 19-20, 2004.

Medieval and Renaissance Studies (CEMERS) and The Medieval and Renaissance Group. February 25, 2004.

Massachusetts. May 24-28, 2003.

ridge, chaired at The American Literature Association Annual Conference. Cambridge, Massachusetts. May 24-28, 2003.

Annual Conference. Cambridge, Massachusetts. May 24-27, 2001.

Third Biennial Jack London Society Symposium, Santa Rosa, California, October 2-5, 1996.

American Literature Association Annual Conference. San Diego, California, May 29-June 2, 1996.

Committee

Candidate: Mohammed Harba. Translation Research and Instruction Program (TRIP). Binghamton University. Binghamton, New York. Examiner in the Arabic Language Component of Certificate in Translation. May 2007. Certificate Granted 2007.

Candidate: Hamza Mahmood. (TRIP). SUNY-Binghamton. Supervise Arabic>English translation to complete his minor in translation studies. Fall 2007

Teaching Experience

Lecturer of Modern Standard Arabic, Arabic of North and West Africa and Middle Eastern and North African Studies, Binghamton University, Department of Africana Studies. Fall 2008-Present: Arabic Civilization and Culture, Literature of Middle East and North Africa (in translation), Muslims, Christians and Jews in Islamic Spain: The Creation

North Africa,
Encountering the Orient: Western Travelers in North Africa.

Assistant Professor of Arabic and Middle Eastern and North African Studies, Binghamton University, Department of Classical and Near Eastern Studies. Fall 2002-Spring 2008: Arabic Civilization and Culture, Literature of Middle East and North Africa (in translation), Muslims, Christians and Jews in Islamic Spain: The Creation of a Culture of Literature and Cinema of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, Modern Standard Arabic language (all levels).

Associate Professor of English, Tidewater Community College, Norfolk, Virginia. Fall 2000-Summer 2002: Composition, Introduction to Literature, African-American Literature, World Literature (in translation), Literature of American Diversity, American Literature.

Pi Delta Phi (University of Toledo chapter), since 1994